

The Trey O'Hearts

Romantic Tale by Louis Joseph Vance.
Copyright, 1914, by Louis Joseph Vance.

SYNOPSIS.
By arrangement with the Universal Film Manufacturing Company, it is possible to see "The Trey O'Hearts" in the picture theatres and also to see it in pictures at the Superior Theatre. Synopsis of preceding chapters: The Trey O'Hearts is the death of a man, the death of a man, the death of a man. The Trey O'Hearts is the death of a man, the death of a man, the death of a man. The Trey O'Hearts is the death of a man, the death of a man, the death of a man.

CHAPTER XLV.—THE RESCUE.
"Never, oh, never, I know that you are altogether dead!"

"Perhaps, are you ready?" And Judith made as if to deal.

"No—never! I tell you I refuse!" Rose cried, terrified.

"Why?"

"Because of this!"

Whipping a small revolver from an inner pocket of her dressing-gown, Judith faced it to the table, ready to her hand.

"You will shoot me if I do not consent?"

"Not you—but him. If you refuse, little sister, I will shoot Alan. You know when he comes to keep his appointment with you."

"Alan?" Rose cried in mingled fright and amazement. "How did you find out?"

"Never mind. Is it a bargain now, about the Trey O'Hearts? Remember, I shall keep my word about this pistol."

"Deadly," she muttered fearfully. "And may God judge between us."

One by one she stripped the cards from the top of the deck, dealing first to Rose, then to herself.

When one they fluttered to the table on which she dealt, the glass of poison, and fell face upward.

"Fate has been dealt when she dealt her hand," Judith said with a cruel smile for Rose.

"I have a premonition about this," she said with a cruel smile for Rose.

"I have a premonition about this," she said with a cruel smile for Rose.

"I have a premonition about this," she said with a cruel smile for Rose.

"I have a premonition about this," she said with a cruel smile for Rose.

"I have a premonition about this," she said with a cruel smile for Rose.

"I have a premonition about this," she said with a cruel smile for Rose.

"I have a premonition about this," she said with a cruel smile for Rose.

"I have a premonition about this," she said with a cruel smile for Rose.

"I have a premonition about this," she said with a cruel smile for Rose.

"I have a premonition about this," she said with a cruel smile for Rose.

"I have a premonition about this," she said with a cruel smile for Rose.

"I have a premonition about this," she said with a cruel smile for Rose.

Household Interests

is to obey them. There surely must be a reason when an otherwise serene person suddenly becomes irritable. Seek out the cause and remedy it. To wait or to procrastinate is to incur a danger. A machinist would not permit an engine to run after he had heard the click of gears in its workings. The driver of an auto will not continue to drive after hearing a "false note" from the engine.

Why, then, take just as great care when that wonderful of all machines, the human body, gets out of order? You cannot get "new parts" for the body as you can for an engine.

Lillian Russell's Answers.
Bessie A. Girls with brown hair and blue eyes can manage to convey a message to her husband by the color of her eyes. Get them a shade darker. I should think you could wear the greens, blues, reds and tans, but not the real dull browns or blacks. Avoid all dark and sombre colors.

Margaret Buttermilk is excellent for the complexion, but it also will remove pimples and blackheads. These can only be removed by absolute cleanliness and persistent care of the face. I shall be glad to give you instructions for using green soap treatment for removing blackheads, also the formula for an excellent cold cream which is used for cleansing the face. If you will send me a stamped, addressed envelope.

Applaud: To keep the hands and nails in good condition they must have daily care. One's hands show neglect as much as one's face does. Each night they should be scrubbed in warm water and a good soap, using a nail brush so as to get all the dirt out of the nails. Never use too hot water nor too cold. The woman who does her own housework must keep the hands protected. If she wishes to keep them good looking, rubber gloves should be worn when doing housework. These should be of light housework, being fitted with a soft and white than covering them with sweet almond oil or olive oil and then putting on a loose fitting pair of kid gloves to protect the skin. This becomes absorbed into the skin and makes the hands soft.

Petite: A woman with pale coloring should naturally wear pink to supply her lack of color, but it must be the right pink—deep or pale, yellowish, or bluish as the case may be. For this reason the skin is a clear, clean, white skin needs the bluish pink. This when pink is not appropriate, select a color that matches or harmonizes with your eyes and hair. If your eyes are blue, all manner of pink, but take care in the selection of the blue.

Kitty K. It is hard for one to reduce flesh and few women are willing to do so. The best way to reduce is to eat right foods and keep up with the exercise necessary to do it. One should not diet except on advice of a physician. Usually a simple diet is best: fast of clear tea or clear coffee and eat light food. That is sufficient for the first meal. A little fresh fruit is advisable. For luncheon clear tea, clear coffee, or unsweetened lemonade, and lean cold meats and a crisp salad. Dinner: broiled chicken or steak, fowl or fish with either spinach, string beans, tomatoes, or asparagus. Nearly all vegetables that grow under the ground, such as potatoes, turnips, beets, parsnips, etc., are fat producing. Eggs, broths, cream, sugar, cereals and butter will pile on the flesh.

Windjammer asks: Will bisulphated magnesia stop fermentation in the stomach?

Reply—No. This is one of that numerous class of nostrums highly recommended by un-named but always "eminent specialists." Notice the little word "Advertisement" at the end of the item exploiting the nostrum.

Dr. Brady's Health Talks
Overlooking the Obvious.

Dr. Brady, in "The Paralyzed Letter," wrote: "The more I reflected, the more astonished I became that, in this letter, the minister had resorted to the comprehensive and sagacious expedient of not attempting to conceal it at all."

In a recent number of the British Medical Journal, Dr. Bradburn describes a case that illustrates how unscientific a physician can be when he is dealing with a puzzling problem. For some reason or other, the medical profession still perpetrates a conspiracy entered into many years ago, with this for a motto: Never look a sick man in the mouth.

The case cited was that of a middle-aged man who was suddenly seized with a chill and general pains in the joints. He took to his bed, and the next morning the legs were covered with red blotches. After two weeks of illness he got up, but was promptly put back again by a return of the first symptoms, accompanied this time by spasmodic abdominal cramps, which were apparently not related to the taking of food.

He was laid up several weeks. Failing to improve at home, he entered the hospital. At this stage the symptoms were those of purpura (scurvy), but no benefit was obtained from remedies that usually relieve that condition.

He had it hidden in his mouth. Careful kidney and blood tests by experts threw no light on the case. There was a low, intermittent fever present most of the time. Many physicians saw the patient in consultation, but none could find the cause. Dr. Bradburn felt that the searching investigation of so many experienced practitioners had excluded every possible source of infection. So here, let us consider the possibility of a connection with him, and he whispered something about overlooking the obvious, placing one long tapering index finger on his lips as he whispered.

Dr. Bradburn now examined the patient's mouth. There were stumps of several decayed teeth and a septic or inflammatory state of the gums. The stumps were immediately extracted.

The fever disappeared at once, the symptoms rapidly cleared up, and the patient made a complete recovery.

We might add analogous instances of patients suffering with symptoms of purpura, rheumatism, arthritis, of possible cancer of the stomach, or of general debility, and finding no relief until some, somehow, persuaded them to stop taking poison twenty-four hours a day. We might also observe that these patients have invariably scouted the idea that "those old teeth" could possibly have anything to do with the present illness, when exhorted to have the mouth cleaned up—at least they have until too sick and discouraged to resist the doctor's exhortation. But what is the use of adding anything to the story at all? A word to the wise is wasted.

Questions and Answers.
A nameless writer asks: What is the blood pressure for a girl of eighteen? How can blood pressure be reduced?

Reply—120 is a fair average. By vegetarian and milk diet, baths, purgatives, special drugs.

Pontine R. P. D. asks: What effect would childbearing have upon a woman having a small, scarcely noticeable goitre? Is goitre curable?

Reply—Favorable effect in the end. Goitre is always curable.

E. J. B. asks: I am simple remedy for diarrhoea caused by taking cold.

There is such close affinity between the mind and body that one need look no further than the condition of the mind to find out the condition of the body. When the mental warnings are heard the all-important thing to do

SOCIETY

Fashion's Decree

To-day's Dress Hint, with authentic note as to style and fabric.

An effective way to make up a velvet dress for a school girl. Collar and cuffs of plain silk and a touch of braiding give it the necessary air of smartness, without spoiling its simplicity. Three and one-fourth yards of 44-inch material, with 1 yard of silk for the collar and cuffs, are needed to reproduce the model.

Pictorial Review Dress No. 5522. Sizes, 14 to 20 years. Price, 15 cents. Braiding design No. 12,953. Transfer pattern, 15 cents.

The pattern will be mailed to any address by The Times-Dispatch Pattern Department on receipt of price.

2. A good bust developer. Are patent necklines for this purpose safe? 3. How can one who has had a severe attack of typhoid fever prevent gallstones or inflammation of gallbladder?

Reply—1. There is no such disease. A cathartic, like aromatic syrup of sassafras or castor oil, followed by ten-hour fast, except water, is appropriate for all simple diarrhoeal attacks at the outset.

2. Deep breathing exercises and the setting-up drill. Sistrums ordinarily harmless, but useless.

3. Free water drinking. Plenty of vegetables and fresh fruits in diet. Avoid sedentary habits. If anything seems wrong, have your doctor suggest a remedy.

Windjammer asks: Will bisulphated magnesia stop fermentation in the stomach?

Reply—No. This is one of that numerous class of nostrums highly recommended by un-named but always "eminent specialists." Notice the little word "Advertisement" at the end of the item exploiting the nostrum.

STORIES TOLD BY THE WOUNDED
(Continued From Sixth Page.)

covery. She could scarcely credit the fact that he had actually returned.

"It has all happened so quickly," she said. "He managed to wire, telling me to come and that's how I have seen him so quickly."

"Look what he gave me," she added, and produced a small, oval-looking rifle bullet, which was passed from hand to hand.

Her husband would seem to be better. That was welcome assurance. But she did not want him to get well too quickly.

"Like every other woman, however, she was proud of the part her man had played. One had to have tales of bravery on the part of the wounded, of heroisms under fire against tremendous odds, of solitude for hours less capable of caring for themselves.

Large numbers of additional wounded reached this country, and like those before them, had stories of adventure to relate.

One of the 120 men taken to Birmingham, who had lost his left hand wounded why he had been sent home, he said, shaking his right fist.

Brown-Meeks.
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
LYNCHBURG, Va., September 22.—George Payne Brown, of Miami, Fla., and Mrs. Louise Brown, of Lynchburg, were married last night at the Methodist Church, the ceremony being performed by the pastor, Rev. E. L. Wells. Newton K. Brown, a brother of the groom, was best man, and Miss Janet Gordon was the maid of honor. Mr. and Mrs. Brown went to Jacksonville, Fla., to spend several days after which they go to Miami to live.

Seagle-Hurst.
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
PULASKI, Va., September 22.—Miss Blanche Hurst, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Hurst, and Thomas M. Seagle, both of this city, were married on Saturday night at 8 o'clock at the Presbyterian Church. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Carl S. Matthews. Mr. Seagle is a member of the furniture firm of Seagle Bros. After a bridal trip to eastern cities, Mr. and Mrs. Seagle will reside in Pulaski.

Pastor Is Called.
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
V.A., September 22.—The members of the Christian church, at a congregational meeting held on Sunday morning, voted to extend a call to Rev. C. Mullins, of Victoria, B. C., Canada, as pastor of the church. From correspondence had with Mr. Mullins the congregation feels that his services can be secured, and that he will be ready to take up the work about the middle of October. The church has been without a pastor since the resignation of Rev. George W. Phelps, who went to Tennessee in June.

D. PERLIN
608 East Grace Street.
Wishes to call the attention of the well-dressed ladies to his complete assortment of the latest important models. He respectfully announces his readiness to fill orders, special prices given during Richmond's fall fashion show.

Personal Notes

MISS HARRISON RETURNS FROM VISIT IN NORTH

Marriage of Miss Anne E. Ryland to James Hoge Hicks Is Announced.
Miss Elsie Harrison has returned to her home on West Franklin Street, after spending the summer months with friends at North Hatley, Canada, and in New York. Mrs. J. V. Harrison, who has also been in the North all summer, is expected to return to Richmond some time next week.

Ricks-Ryland.
Mr. Charles H. Ryland, announces the marriage of his daughter, Anne Elizabeth, to James Hoge Hicks. The ceremony was quietly solemnized yesterday morning at the home of the bride on West Grace Street.

Prominent Wedding.
The marriage of Miss Agnes Gordon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence C. Whiting, to Dr. Walter Dent Wise, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter H. Wise, of St. Mary's County, Md., will take place on Tuesday, October 20, at 5:30 P. M., in the apartment of the bride-elect's parents at Earl Court. Members of the two immediate families will be present at the ceremony, which will be followed by a reception at 6 o'clock, to which a few additional relatives and intimate friends will be invited. The aid of honor, and only attendant, will be Miss Dorothy Whiting, the bride-elect's sister. The best man will be Dr. D. C. Patterson, of Bridgeport, Conn. After a wedding luncheon, the bride and groom will reside at the Walbert, where they have leased an apartment.

Back from Motor Trip.
The automobile party, consisting of Dr. and Mrs. J. G. King, Mr. and Mrs. Young, Mrs. Frank E. Pratt and Miss Lavette Bowman, returned to Fredericksburg Sunday evening after an auto trip to Buffalo, Litchia Springs.

The party also motored to Richmond and spent a short time in the city, en route for the Buffalo Litchia Springs.

Returned to Richmond.
Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Warrington Wise have returned to their home, 805 West Franklin Street, after spending the summer in the North. Mr. and Mrs. Wise have been for the most of the summer season in Western New York and at Atlantic City.

Stay-at-Home Whist Club.
The Stay-at-Home Whist Club met on Monday evening at the home of Mrs. C. W. Brock, 290 East Franklin Street, with the hostess, Mrs. Brock, and Miss Sue K. Gordon making the highest score for the game. The club will be entertained next week at the residence of John Tyler, on West Franklin Street.

Engagement Announced.
Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Adkins announce the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Elsie Louise, to John Strachan Cox. The ceremony will take place in October at the Broad Memorial Church in this city.

In Richmond.
Miss Mary Wright, Miss Caroline Pickrell, of Goodland, and Palmer Leitch, who has been visiting in that city, were in Richmond yesterday.

Miss Leitch, who has been visiting in that city, was in Richmond yesterday, and returned to Goodland last evening.

Helmer-Strader.
Miss M. C. Strader, of 2027 Hanover Avenue, announces the marriage of her daughter, Josephine, to Edgar Coleman Helmer, formerly of Baltimore, but now of this city. The marriage took place quietly last Monday.

Recent Announcements.
Mrs. Claudius W. Murdaugh, Jr., has issued invitations to the wedding reception of her daughter, Anna Fleet, and Wright Bruce Carney, Jr., which will take place on the evening of October 2, from 8 until 9:30, at her home, 228 North Street, Portsmouth.

Mr. A. C. Folsom, of Hutton Street, Portsmouth, announces the engagement and approaching marriage of her daughter, Christine, to Thomas L. Crenshaw. The wedding will take place October 24 at the First Presbyterian Church in this city.

Mr. and Mrs. Alphonse Wallace announce the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Agnes Williams, to Edward Gill Pace, of Norfolk. The wedding will take place at the country home of the bride's parents on Little Bay.

Distinguished Visitors.
Ex-Governor of Hawaii and Mrs. Walter, Francis Freer, who are in Washington for a while before returning to their home, in Honolulu, were the guests on Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. S. G. Freer, of this city.

In and Out of Town.
Miss Mary A. Johnson returned to the Norfolk Hotel on Monday, after an extended stay at Atlantic City.

Mrs. E. A. Patterson and Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Crutchfield have moved from Petersburg to Richmond, and are now residing at 1632 Monument Avenue.

J. Haskins Hobson has returned to his home, in Powhatan County, after a short stay in this city.

E. R. Addison, after a visit to Blue Ridge Springs, is now the guest of his daughter, Mrs. D. Gray Langhorne, in Pulaski.

Mrs. R. C. Nelson has returned to her apartment at the Hanover, after an extended absence from the city.

Francis Johnson is leaving shortly to spend the week-end with friends in Norfolk.

Miss Elsie Wilmer has been the recent guest of Miss Elizabeth Owen at "Buck Hill."

Miss Janet Erskine Swann, of Gloucester Park, has returned from the Greenbrier White Sulphur Springs, where for

Nadine Face Powder
(In Green Boxes Only)
Makes The Complexion Beautiful

Producing that soft, velvety freshness so much admired. Money refunded if not entirely pleased. Nadine is pure and harmless and adheres until washed off. Blends out blemishes; prevents sunburn and return of discolorations. A million delighted users endorse the delicate tints, Flesh, Pink, Brunette, White.

By Toilet Counters or Mail, 50c. National Toilet Company, Paris, Tenn.

11 W. Broad
Eymour Syle
Fine Footwear for Women.

the past three weeks she has been the guest of Miss Marlan Grundy.
Mrs. Josephine Ott-Morris, of Richmond, is spending two weeks as the guest of her mother, Mrs. Annie Ott, in Gloucester.

Miss Elizabeth Cooke has just returned from the North, where she has been all summer.

Miss Roberts Weelford, of Charlottesville, is visiting friends in this city.

Miss Mary Butler is the guest of Miss Lora Crump at the Chesterfield, after a visit to Buffalo, Litchia Springs.

Miss Mary Wood, who has been spending some time in Atlantic City, has returned to Richmond.

Mrs. Henry Flippin, who has been ill at St. Elizabeth's Hospital, is much improved, and has returned to her home, in Powhatan County.

Clarence French, who has been spending his vacation at Sunny Side, is making a short visit to friends in this city, before returning to Philadelphia, where he makes his home.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles G. Boshier are returning this week from a visit to Atlantic City and New York.

Charles B. Netherlands, of Dinwiddie, is visiting relatives in Powhatan County.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Jamieson, of Danville, have been guests of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Hoge.

Mr. and Mrs. Chandler, of Washington, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Henry, of "Glen Henry," Powhatan County.

Mr. and Mrs. Stuart Woodward and their children have returned from Glen Allen, and are now at 115 East Franklin Street.

Miss Birdie Mechaux, of "Mechaux Grant," left several days ago to attend school in Farmville.

Misses Edith Whitlock and Ruth Fowles, of Tobaccoville, have gone to Danville, where they will attend school this session.

Miss Kate Powell, of Fredericksburg, arrived in Richmond on Monday to spend several months here.

Miss Margaret Morson will spend the fall and winter months with Mrs. Bland Bouldwood Smith, on West Grace Street.

J. E. Moore, of this city, is spending a few days in Roanoke, before returning to his home here.

Mrs. George Gibson has been a recent visitor to Abingdon, where she is having a new home built.

Colonel H. C. Ford has returned to Lexington, after spending a few days with friends in this city.

Misses Nan and Mary Ed. Godwin have left for New York, where they will spend a month with Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Leigh.

Mrs. Robert Smith, of Pulaski, has returned to Lexington, after spending a few days with friends in this city.

Chester B. Goodrich has returned to his home, in Fredericksburg, after a short stay in Richmond.

New Skin Peeler
In Great Demand

Since the discovery that mercurized wax possesses remarkable absorbent powers when applied to the skin, the demand for it as a complexion renews has been tremendous. Druggists in every section report sales far exceeding those of anything similar they have ever had on their shelves.

Ordinary mercurized wax, according to Prof. Hoffman, gently peels off the devitalized outside in minute particles, so that the user gradually loses her old worn-out covering its place. Cutaneous eruptions, blemishes, moles, patches, tan and freckles are of wax is entirely harmless, and easy to use. As the women all over the country are purchasing it in original packages and using it, quickly rejuvenate their complexion. The wax is applied to face, neck or hands the same as cold cream, allowed to remain overnight, then washed off with warm water. National Drug Review—Adv.

J. B. Mosby & Co.
Richmond's greatest exposition of exclusive models in Suits and Gowns.

Welcome to Those Who Come to View the Beautiful Display Gathered by the Thalheimer Store for the

Fall Fashion Show

Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, September 22nd to 24th Inclusive

To-day, Fashion reveals her first complete Exposition of Authentic Fall Styles, featuring handsome Evening Gowns, Wraps, Tailored Suits, Street and Party Dresses, Creations of the foremost American Makers, as well as the best Foreign Models, faithful reproductions of such master designers as Bernard, Callot, Paquin, etc.

Much could be said here about the great size, the endless variety, correctness, etc., of our Women's Fall Wearing Apparel, and still the story would be poorly told. A visit is the only way for you to convince yourself how important a place we hold in Ready-to-Wear Garment selling—of the great strides we've made and the enviable position we now occupy. We want you to come and see for yourself this Fall Fashion Exhibition of 1914. A visit will be both profitable and instructive.

THE KAUFMANN STORE

O! I Say!!!
Extraw Ordinary!!!
Kaufmann's Did You Say?
Of Course!!
NATURALLY

To-day, To-morrow and Friday--Exhibition of the World's Best FASHIONS for WOMEN.

Miss Kate Powell, of Fredericksburg, arrived in Richmond on Monday to spend several months here.

Miss Margaret Morson will spend the fall and winter months with Mrs. Bland Bouldwood Smith, on West Grace Street.

J. E. Moore, of this city, is spending a few days in Roanoke, before returning to his home here.

Mrs. George Gibson has been a recent visitor to Abingdon, where she is having a new home built.

Colonel H. C. Ford has returned to Lexington, after spending a few days with friends in this city.

Misses Nan and Mary Ed. Godwin have left for New York, where they will spend a month with Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Leigh.

Mrs. Robert Smith, of Pulaski, has returned to Lexington, after spending a few days with friends in this city.

Chester B. Goodrich has returned to his home, in Fredericksburg, after a short stay in Richmond.

ANNOUNCEMENT
Mr. H. Hickman Walton, Jr., of New York, Assisted By Miss Jennie Elvidge, of Atlantic City, Will Give An

Exhibition of Dancing at Colombo Hall
Broad and Allison Sts., on Thursday Evening, Sept. 24, at 8:30. Cards for admittance will be mailed upon application to Mr. Walton, 2015 Grove Avenue.

Dancing classes will be conducted during the coming season on Monday, Friday and Saturday evenings and Saturday afternoon. Special attention given to private instruction. Rates upon application. Mr. Walton intends to cater only to the best class of Richmond people.

Women's Fine Tailoring
Individuality is the keynote of our work. Every suit given the careful attention of experts from the time the order is taken until the last button is sewn on.

Every Suit is Different
The newest woollens and the wanted fabrics are here and ready for your inspection.

Place your order early.
Phone 1800 Randolph,
Brown-Merryman Co., Inc.
Foushee Street, Between Broad and Grace.
Also Lynchburg, Va.

Welcome to Those Who Come to View the Beautiful Display Gathered by the Thalheimer Store for the

Fall Fashion Show

Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, September 22nd to 24th Inclusive

To-day, Fashion reveals her first complete Exposition of Authentic Fall Styles, featuring handsome Evening Gowns, Wraps, Tailored Suits, Street and Party Dresses, Creations of the foremost American Makers, as well as the best Foreign Models, faithful reproductions of such master designers as Bernard, Callot, Paquin, etc.

Much could be said here about the great size, the endless variety, correctness, etc., of our Women's Fall Wearing Apparel, and still the story would be poorly told. A visit is the only way for you to convince yourself how important a place we hold in Ready-to-Wear Garment selling—of the great strides we've made and the enviable position we now occupy. We want you to come and see for yourself this Fall Fashion Exhibition of 1914. A visit will be both profitable and instructive.

Evening Gowns, Tailored Suits, Lingerie Waists, Party Dresses, Handsome Coats, Street Dresses.

Thalheimer's
BROAD AND FIF